From the Rector

Dear Friends,

I hope the beginning of the new year has been a good start for you, and that you are looking forward to the remaining 11 months of this year with expectation and hope.

It is actually a slight irony, but I'm not sure how January has been – cold? Snowy? Wet? Dry? I don't know how January has been because I'm writing this letter on Christmas Eve! I don't even know whether I've had a good Christmas or not yet!!!! And for me, the truth is that with my health problems, January 2014 was a really difficult time – will January 2015 be better? However that is history, I hope!

At this moment of writing this letter, I stopped because I wasn't sure what I was going to say next. However, my thoughts went back to my greeting, my first sentence, and thought that is it – expectation and hope. Expectation and hope should be the theme of my first letter for the year. As the people of God they are two of the fundamental characteristics which guide our lives. We expect, and we hope, because God is part of our lives, and God is one who comes to answer those expectations and hopes.

I suspect we might have a whole range of expectations and hopes. As a church I expect we will have our new organ in the near future. I hope we will see new faces joining us, and becoming part of our family at St. Cyprian's. I expect our church to continue to grow together in love, and each of us to deepen our faith, and grow in our walk with God. I hope we will experience more and more of God working in our lives through his Holy Spirit whom he sends to us. I hope and expect the fruit of the Spirit to become more and more alive in our fellowship (Galatians 5:22-23).

Magazine & DNS Deadline

The next issue of Cyprian Life should be available in Church on Sunday 29th March 2015. The deadline for material is 15th March and the magazine will cover April 2015 only.

Please pass notes, articles, photographs and anything else that may be of interest to other members of the congregation to me by the deadline in order to give time for typesetting and printing. Electronic format is preferred since this is usually quicker and more accurate.

Please let me know about what is important to you. It is great to be able to report family events and things happening in our local community. Thank you.

Susan Walker has now taken on the role of editing the Diocesan Newsletter following Susi Cormack Brown's retirement. She is planning to produce a monthly email newsletter, which will be sent to existing contacts, but she wants to encourage individual members of congregations to subscribe to the mailing list. The first issue arrived just as this magazine closed for printing. You can see it at news.church.scot, where you can also register to receive it yourself. The email newsletter takes the form of brief paragraphs with links to fuller articles on the Glasgow & Galloway Diocesan website and, where appropriate, other sites.

Susan is asking for any items for the newsletter to be sent to her at news@church.scot.

The diocesan website contains news pages, which continue to be updated regularly. Please go to: www.glasgow.anglican.org.

The views expressed in Cyprian Life are not necessarily those of the Editor or of the Scottish Episcopal Church.

From the Rector

The expectations and hopes may be also for our world, that following a year when we have experienced and seen dreadful things in our world, we will see the peace of God grow, we will see justice come to all.

The expectations and hopes may be for ourselves, and may be for our families. Hopes that people will find security, will find dreams fulfilled, will find relationships mended.

I could go on – as God's people we can have and should have hopes and expectations. But of course there is more. For some people to have hopes and expectations is to live deluded lives. You have to make your own "luck." It is different for us as God's people – to have hopes and expectations is a good thing, because we have a God who meets our hopes and expectations. And a God who meets them honestly.

Sometimes God says – no, your hopes and expectations are wrong. You want to become a multi-billionaire this year? Then your hopes

This was the fourth of the Advent Candles. A new one arrived in church each Sunday in Advent based around the theme for the Sunday. This one has the theme Love, the Love of God for us being shown in the birth and death of Jesus. It seems very appropriate to the season that we are entering.

Can you spot the reference to a famous Two Ronnies sketch? The symbolism is explained in more detail on the centre pages along with illustrations and explanations of the other three candles.

are wrong! Perhaps you need to pray and think again – what should I hope and expect?

Sometimes God says – hang about, wait. Take your time – in my time I will meet your hopes and expectations.

Sometimes God says – yes – I will meet your hopes and expectations, but maybe in the way I choose, and not the way you think they should be met. But my way will be better than what you want.

Sometimes God simply says yes.

The important thing – whatever God answers to our hopes and expectations, it will be good because God is good, and it will be out of his love for us, because he is infinitely loving.

There is a famous prayer written by Minnie Haskins in 1908, and used by King George VI in his Christmas broadcast in 1939, a prayer which sums it up beautifully:

And I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year: "Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown."

And he replied: "Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the Hand of God. That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way." So I went forth, and finding the Hand of God, trod gladly into the night. And He led me towards the hills and the breaking of day in the lone East.

Yours in Christ,

Pastoral Care

One of the important purposes of Christ's church is to provide the love and care we all need.

If you, or anyone you know, would like a visit from a priest or the opportunity for a confidential chat and a prayer, please contact the Revd. Les Ireland, who will be happy to help in any way he can.

St. Cyprian's also has a number of people who are authorised to visit and simply be a trusted friend who can be there to listen if you wish. Les can put you in touch with an appropriate person that may be best qualified to help. Please telephone Les on 0141-776 3866.

Over the last year I have written about some of my heroes of faith. I think I've run out of heroes to write about!! With that in mind, this year I thought I would write about something else I find fascinating – the story of individual hymns. Hymns are part of the lifeblood of our life and worship as God's people. For me they become all the more pointed and sacred as we learn the story behind the hymn. Over this coming year I intend to tell the story of some of our most famous hymns. This is the first:

A Story of Exile, Suffering and Dependence on God.....

Joseph Scriven was born in County Down, Ireland, in 1820, and died in 1886 in Rice Lake, Ontario, Canada, either after an accident, or more likely after committing suicide, his body found in a local river. Little is known about his life.

As a young man Joseph Scriven aspired to follow in his father's footsteps as a Royal Marine, but poor health made that impossible. Instead he studied at Trinity College, Dublin, graduating in 1844 and then began to teach. Scriven was engaged to be married, but soon after graduating his fiancée drowned the day before their wedding. Scriven was a man of faith, but on the death of his fiancée he re-committed himself to the Plymouth Brethren, then moved to Canada in 1845. He moved perhaps to start a new life, but also because his faith caused tensions with his family.

In Canada He taught, and established a home in Rice Lake, Ontario. While living there, he became engaged again, but his fiancée became ill and died before they could be married.

In his grief, Scriven determined to devote himself to a life of service, inspired by the "Sermon on the Mount." He sold all his possessions and vowed to give his life to the physically handicapped and financially destitute. He was especially known for carrying a bucksaw and cutting firewood for people in need. Scriven seems never to have married.

In 1855, Scriven heard that his mother was ill. He couldn't afford to return to Ireland, so he sent his mother a poem in the hope that it would comfort her. It is the only thing he is known to have written. Later when Scriven was ill some friends found the poem and submitted a copy of his poem to a religious journal, where it was published, then linked to a tune written by a lawyer called Charles Converse. When asked about the poem, Scriven is supposed to have said: "The Lord

LENT.....

A Time for Misery .....???????

Lent starts on Ash Wednesday – 18th February. On Ash Wednesday, we will have a special service to mark the beginning of Lent at 7pm. I checked on Wikipedia what they said about Lent, and I quote: “Lent is a solemn religious observance.....which begins on Ash Wednesday and covers a period of approximately six weeks before Easter Sunday. The traditional purpose of Lent is the preparation of the believer through prayer, penance, repentance of sins, almsgiving, atonement and self-denial.” I have to say – even the best advertising agencies would struggle to sell “Lent!”

We tend to make Lent an “unappealing” time in our worship. We choose more solemn hymns. We leave out the Gloria from our communion services and add in the commandments. Clergy wear purple, and we dress the church in purple, the colour of mourning. We tend to talk about “What are we going to give up for Lent?” and see it as time to give up chocolate, or cigarettes or..... That advertising agency is having real problems with this!!!!

Is there anything good about Lent? Maybe it is time to rethink a bit, and ask – how can we make Lent a much more positive time, how can we help the advertising agency?

Well, the first thing to note is that on some of the Sundays during Lent, in our lectionary, we have readings about the last days of Christ. There is Passion Sunday – the 5th Sunday of Lent. There is Palm Sunday – the 6th Sunday of Lent. During Holy Week – the week leading up to Easter, we have services such as “The Stations of the Cross”, and the Good Friday

Vigil. Each of those services focus on Christ in the way he was in the run up to his own murder. And if we watch Christ suffer, and face his accusers, we see something of real beauty. The contrast of the time makes that beauty even more poignant: the people, the leaders, the Romans all behaved in a despicable and corrupt and brutal way, yet in the face of that, the way Christ behaved was truly stunning, truly astonishing, truly beautiful and full of grace. If we look to the events leading up to Easter we see Christ showing infinite beauty.

Personally I want to make beauty the theme of Lent. It is in seeing beauty that we change. It is in searching for beauty that we find we want rid of the darkness in our lives. It is in meditating on beauty that we find light coming into our hearts. One of my favourite sayings is one by Dostoyevsky when he says “Beauty will Save the World.” Perhaps the emphasis of Lent should be less on beating ourselves up, rather more on what we should seek, and seeking beauty in our lives, in our community, in our world, in our church, and most importantly of all, seeking the beauty of Jesus Christ.

Through Lent we will be having some special weekly activities in preparation for Easter. I’m not sure what format they will take yet. However, I think I will take that as the theme – seeking beauty. A time for turning from the darkness of our lives, a time for seeking the beauty in our world and in Christ. Look out for details in the Link in the next few weeks.

A Story of Exile, Suffering and Dependence on God.....

and I did it together". A few years later, in 1886, he died. His last years were plagued by ill health, poverty and depression.

The poem had been published in an obscure journal, but was discovered by D.L. Moody, the great American Evangelist, and was sung throughout his campaigns in the 1890's and published in the famous hymn book "Sankey's Sacred Songs and Solos," Sankey being the singer to Moody the preacher. From that non-conformist background, the hymn is now sung widely throughout the world. And the words?

What a friend we have in Jesus,
all our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
everything to God in prayer!
O what peace we often forfeit,
O what needless pain we bear,
all because we do not carry
everything to God in prayer.

Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged;
take it to the Lord in prayer.
Can we find a friend so faithful
who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness;
take it to the Lord in prayer.

Are we weak and heavy laden,
cumbered with a load of care?
Precious Saviour, still our refuge;
take it to the Lord in prayer.
Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?
Take it to the Lord in prayer!
In his arms he'll take and shield thee;
thou wilt find a solace there.

Four advent stations – what were they all about?

In our church, in the run up to Christmas, a group of us set up four stations based on Advent candles. What was it all about?

There is no set pattern for what the four candles of advent represent. Or perhaps better to say, there are several different patterns used in different churches. This year we chose to use the pattern that the first candle is the candle of hope, the second the candle of peace, the third the candle of joy, the fourth the candle of love – it is a pattern used in many churches from a “low” church tradition. How did we envisage the stations we had?

The first station used light – we put a spot light inside a made up box with a stained glass and we have peace.

Our third candle represented joy, and we simply made it as colourful as we could, with lights on candles.

Our fourth candle was the candle of love. For this we had a crib scene, but from the crib scene was a link to Jesus on the cross, crucified. It gave two thoughts – the person born in the stable was the same as the person who died on the cross. Second, we first saw a hint of the love of God in a baby born in a stable, but the true picture of love, the complete picture of love, was shown in the sacrifice that Jesus made for us in his death, a death caused by the depth of love he had for us.

Our hope was that everyone would enjoy the colour and the fun of what we did, but see effect on the front which lit up! Light and hope for me go hand in hand – it is hope, and hope in Christ, which takes us out of our personal darknesses.

For the second – representing peace – we used the words of the angel to Mary: “do not fear.” Remove the fear, as Christ removes fear, beyond that to the truth we were trying to get over in those stations.

The first three Advent Candles are illustrated here and the fourth one in on the front cover of this magazine.

Music at St Cyprian's A Taste of Italy

The last Saturday of November saw another great night of music at St Cyprian's with three talented musicians, Maximilian Fane - Tenor, Lauren Jean McQuistin - Soprano and Bethany Jerem - Piano, entertaining us with music with an Italian flavour. We are very grateful to them and hope to see them again soon.

Mission Action Planning and St. Cyprian's Church

When Bishop Gregor was elected bishop, one of the pledges he had made was to set in place a process which would enable the diocese to grow. Over the previous 20 years the diocese had declined considerably, losing both churches and members of congregations. To turn this around, his pledge was developed into a process called “MAP-ping,” the letters MAP standing for Mission Action Planning. All charges were strongly encouraged/expected to be part of this process, and through diocesan synod agreed to be involved.

St. Cyprian's has not, until now, entered the process for two reasons – firstly, before there was a Rector in place, the church wouldn't enter the process. Secondly, our consideration of the process has been delayed by my health problems. We are now getting involved! So, what is it all about?

Firstly, the diocese appoints someone to work with us through the process. I met with him – Steve Thompson – before Christmas. It is strongly emphasised that the facilitator is NOT going to tell anyone what to do, rather would help and serve our church through the process, as we work out for ourselves what our Mission Action Plan should be.

Secondly, there is a four stage process that the church works through, with the support of the facilitator, and a small group of people from the church (the “MAP group”). The four stages are:

1) Trying to understand our church and the area in which we minister. The diocese has identified six what they consider the most significant areas of church life, and asks us to reflect on each of those six areas. Those areas are:

- ❖ Worship, prayer and Spirituality
- ❖ Learning and discipleship
- ❖ Missional leadership
- ❖ Welcome, Integration and Numerical Growth
- ❖ Imaginative outreach to our communities
- ❖ Children and Young people.

These headings can sound a touch “jargonistic,” but are good headings for what a church should be about. For us, the “MAP group” will oversee this part of the process, and will gather together information on our church and the area in which we minister, and may canvass the views of members of our church to help in this process.

2) Setting out a growth strategy which is realistic and achievable, a strategy which is based on one or two of the six areas listed above.

3) Setting out how we will achieve that growth strategy. Steps two and three are the designing of our Mission Action Plan – our MAP.

4) Reviewing and refreshing the strategy, adapting it in the future as we need to change our emphases, as we may achieve our goals.

The process from first meeting to putting a MAP in place could take up to a year. That year long process would involve three or four meetings of our mapping group, perhaps one or two congregational meetings where the process and the plans can be presented to the congregation, and challenged by the congregation. When we have a MAP in place, then there would be some sort of special event (probably part of a Sunday Service) where the plan would be signed and launched.

At the recent vestry meeting it was agreed

we should be involved in the process, and appointed a group of people – Paul Hindle, Eileen Ferry, Adrian Clark and Jackie Barker as the MAP group. We hope to have perhaps two or three others join that group – if you want to know more please have a word with the Rector – we would love to have a representative, for example, who regularly attends our early Sunday service. (If we don't get any volunteers I may have to “noble” people!)

So what happens next? I know Steve Thompson is hoping to join us for worship one Sunday morning, and I know we will make him welcome, as well as give him some idea of what we are about. Steve and the MAP group will also meet in the near future and plan out how the process will happen over the coming months. Please watch out for more news, but if you want to know more you can check our diocesan website (put into Google, Glasgow Galloway Diocese), then towards the bottom of the front page there is a link to a whole section of the site about the Mission Action Planning process.

MAP Prayer:

Spirit of our Loving God,
in your mercy and compassion
inspire, encourage and empower us to live and work together
as a Diocese,
to allow your mission for us
to take flesh
through Jesus Christ
our Living and Eternal Lord.
