Curate's Corner

Dear Friends,

At the time of writing this, I have just returned from holiday last week and I am still not quite back into the swing of things, but I do want to wish everyone a healthy and blessed year in 2012.

Easter is a little early this year and we will be celebrating Ash Wednesday on the 22nd February with a service at 7.30pm and the imposition of ashes.

During the period of Lent this year, we hope to be able to offer some Bible Study in the Choir Vestry so that we might prepare ourselves for Holy Week and Easter and I am looking at some Lenten books along with Glennis to see what is available. I do hope that everyone will try to make time during Lent to support the Bible Study when they can.

Lent is a good time to renew our commitment to Christ and to get ourselves into a regular routine of prayer and coming closer to God. Sometimes it is good to set ourselves a challenge during Lent and instead of giving up something that we usually enjoy, but might not be good for us, it can be more rewarding actually to commit to doing something for the good of ourselves or for the good of others.

One year I challenged myself to read the whole of the Bible in one year, beginning at Lent. I signed up to an email scheme which advised three portions of the Bible to read each day until the whole Bible was read through. It didn't begin at Genesis and end at Revelation, but was more a themed set of readings for each day, which made it more interesting, though I have to admit that I found all the facts and figures in 1st and 2nd Kings rather tedious (and still do). However, it was a worthwhile exercise and helped to maintain a discipline of setting aside time each morning to read scripture and reflect on the passages I was reading.

Last week the Pastoral Visiting Group met and we have shared out the names of those we are praying for on our prayer list amongst us and have committed to praying for these people in our daily prayers. If there are others you would like to have prayed for but perhaps don't want to put them in the Link, let me know and the Pastoral Group will include them.

Please remember that I am available anytime if anyone wants to speak with me and do let me know if you hear of anyone who is ill

Magazine & DNS Deadline

The next issue of Cyprian Life should be available in Church on Sunday 25th March 2012. The deadline for material is 11th March and the magazine will cover April only.

Please pass notes, articles, photographs and anything else that may be of interest to other members of the congregation to me by the deadline in order to give time for typesetting and printing. Electronic format is preferred since this is usually quicker and more accurate.

Please let me know about what is important to you. It is great to be able to report family events and things happening in our local community. Thank you.

Selected items from Diocesan News are included in this issue. The full document can be downloaded from the diocesan website: www.glasgow.anglican.org

Click on the link on the home page to access the current and earlier editions. If you don't have Internet access, but would like to read DNS, a few printed copies will be available at the back of the Church.

Diocesan News is published ten times per year. If you have items that would be of interest across the Diocese, please send them to the Diocesan News editor, Susi Cormack Brown, e-mail: dns@episcopalglasgow.co.uk or by post to c/o Glasgow & Galloway Diocesan Centre, 5 St Vincent Place, Glasgow G1 2DH. Please send in prose text, i.e. not leaflets, adverts, posters or PDFs. The deadline for the March issue will be Monday 13th February 2012.

The views expressed in Cyprian Life and the Diocesan News are not necessarily those of the Editor of either publication or the Diocesan Information and Communications Group.

or in hospital or you think needs a visit, either from one of the Pastoral Visiting Group or from myself. I am hoping to have the church office manned for one hour perhaps three times a week if there is anyone who would be willing to give one hour of their time each week. It would also mean that any photocopying/laminating/other office tasks could be shared out among those manning the office. Please do think about it and if you feel you could help, just let me know.

May God bless us all richly as we seek to do His will at St. Cyprian's.

Yours in Christ,

Moir

Cover Photo

The photo shows On the Wagon on their last visit to us in March 2011. Although they are described as a folk band, they so much more. From Scottish dance to country to rock and of course folk, you have to be very hard to please if you can't find something to love in what they offer, so note the date: 17th March 2012 at 7.30pm.

Before that we welcome back the Allander Jazz Band for an evening of Trad Jazz. They'll have you dancing in the aisle if Jeany has anything to do with it! Again, make a date for 18th February at 7.30pm.

Lent pilgrimages to the Cathedral

Bishop Gregor warmly invites SEC members across the diocese to join him during Lent on a day of pilgrimage to our Cathedral.

There are three dates, each allocated to one or more of the diocesan regions.

Starting with coffee at 10am, the morning programme will include a tour of the Cathedral, led by the Provost, on the theme of Sacraments, then time for photos and personal exploration of the building.

After lunch at noon, there will be the chance to visit a Gurdwara or a Mosque. Bishop Gregor will celebrate Eucharist at 3pm, before the pilgrims' blessing and departure.

Pilgrims should register through their own church. They are asked to bring a packed lunch. Coffee and tea will be laid on.

The date for our region is 17 March, which unfortunately clashes in the afternoon with our MU's Daffodil Tea.

Bishop's Lent Appeal

THE beneficiary of this year's Bishop's Lent appeal is Waverley Care, a charity which has, for 21 years, been providing care and support to people who are living with or affected by HIV.

Waverley Care
making a positive difference

In many ways, the nature of HIV has changed. It is no longer a terminal condition and, with the right treatment and support, people can live relatively normal lives. What hasn't changed, however, is the stigma of HIV. Those who live with HIV live with the added burden of secrecy, with both adults and children being unable to confide in friends or neighbours for fear of being judged or victimised. People live in constant fear of others finding out. The impact of stigma on emotional and spiritual health is profound.

This is where Waverley Care's work can make such a difference. The charity is there to provide support to everyone whose lives are affected by HIV. They work with adults and children from across every sector of society.

HIV doesn't discriminate; anyone can be affected. Through one-to-one and group support, Waverley Care can turn lives around, rebuilding self-confidence and helping people to know that they are valued, loved and cared for.

Lenzie Branch

the wheels appeal evening

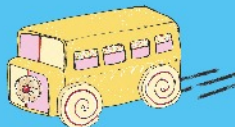

The evening held on 11 January 2012 raised £74 for the appeal, which is pretty good for the number of people there.

It seemed to be a very enjoyable evening and it was nice to have some members from other MU's with us.

We are now quite good at drawing buses!!

My thanks to everyone who came along and contributed in any way.

Good Turnout for Advent Quiet Day

The Diocesan Quiet Day for Advent was held on Saturday 10th December 2011 in two venues: Holy Trinity & St Barnabas, Paisley and St Ninian's, Castle Douglas.

Thirty people gathered in Paisley, where Bishop Gregor gave a fascinating insight in to the very different lives of three great Anglicans—George Herbert, John Newton and George Bell. Each of these reflections was followed by a period of silence.

The Eucharist was celebrated in the church, and this was followed by fellowship over lunch before returning to quiet mode for the last session.

The day started and ended with Morning and Evening Prayer from the Prayer Book.

About 20 people at Castle Douglas enjoyed the Quiet Day led by Bishop Gordon Mursell, whose theme was: 'Preparing for Christmas—Prayer in Advent'. There, the Eucharist was celebrated by Canon David Bayne and lunch was enhanced by contributions of home-made soup.

Journey in Faith course:

Trinity and Church

This six-week evening course, from the Diocesan Education Action Group, follows on from Journey in Faith Unit 1, but participants who have not done Unit 1 will also be welcome.

The sessions are offered at two locations: Holy Trinity Kilmarnock (led by Prof David Jasper on Tuesdays) and St Margaret's Newlands (led by Bishop Gregor on Wednesdays).

The first three nights cover:

- God the Father as Creator and Judge—including the problem of evil
- God the Son: Who is Jesus—divine and human?
- God the Holy Spirit: Who is the Holy Spirit? What does the Holy Spirit do?

Sessions 4 and 5 explore:

- The development of the early Church up to the end of the patristic period
- How the SEC came into being
- What a church is—by looking at different contemporary models of church.

Session 6 deals with God's call to the Church and to us as individuals.

The course runs from 17/18 April to 21/22 May.

For more details and a booking form (registration is £10) contact Revd Gordon B Fyfe, Education Action Convener: 01475 673143, gordon.fyfe@virginmedia.com.

Intercession training

Intercession training sessions last year in Glasgow, Ayr and Galloway were well attended by clergy and laity and there have been requests for more.

If you would be interested in the next workshop, contact Gill Young (gill.young13@gmail.com) or write to the Diocesan Centre (office@glasgow.anglican.org).

Addiction remembrance

A service of remembrance for those who had died as a result of addiction proved a moving occasion last December at St Augustine's Dumbarton. Rector Kenny Macaulay reports...

THE church was fairly full with mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters, friends and caseworkers of young people who had died as a result of drug misuse, and of people who had died as a result of alcoholism.

Everyone was given the chance to name someone they had lost, and light a candle in their memory. There was a lot of healing and some closure going on.

The liturgy flowed well, and ended by remembering those still suffering on the streets and at home, with a great feeling and message of hope for all.

Afterwards we had coffee, tea and eats in the hall, where we were joined by a large gang of Narcotics Anonymous folk in recovery. That certainly gladdened the heart!

Hopefully, it will only be the first one of these services, and it will become an annual event in the town.

There were 18 drug-related deaths in West Dunbartonshire in 2011 alone. Unfortunately that number will be added to as the weeks and months and years progress.

A book of remembrance has been started, and it will be housed in St Augustine's.

Nothing can be done without drama at St Aug's, however, and after everyone was safely in the community hall blethering, the candles on the table at the front of the altar exploded into a huge flame.

A large dollop of baptismal water was used to 'pit it oot'!

Worth doing? Certainly!

Drumming and dance in the Cathedral

Known affectionately as 'Chucks' to friends and colleagues, Revd Chukwue-meka Iwuagwu was ordained priest by Bishop Gregor on the Festival of the Epiphany in St Mary's Cathedral.

For the past year, Chucks has served as non-stipendiary curate at the Cathedral, and that church was filled with a large crowd to witness, and participate in, his ordination to the priesthood. Chucks will continue to serve on the Cathedral team.

A combined choir of some 50 voices (both adult and junior) thrilled the congregation with their rendering of two anthems: 'And the Glory of the Lord' from Handel's Messiah, and Richard Lord's 'View me, Lord'.

At the end of the service, not to be outdone on the music front, an impromptu group of Nigerian musicians gave a vibrant and robust exhibition of drumming and dance.

Dementia and Faith Workshop

FAITH in Older People, in collaboration with Dementia Positive, is running a day workshop on Creative Communication: finding ways to connect with people with dementia.

It's on Friday 23 March in the Ignatian Spirituality Centre, Glasgow.

The workshop will be participatory, offering new ideas and perspectives together with very practical approaches drawn from the experience of the presenters.

It will be facilitated by Kate Allan, a psychologist whose interests include communication, creativity and well-being in dementia, and writer John Killick, who has championed for many years the role of the arts for people with dementia.

Future Ministry at St Cyprian's

You may be wondering where we are in our search for a new leader to take St Cyprian's forward into the future.

There has been quite a lot of activity over the last 5 or 6 months, but unfortunately not a lot to show for it.

We advertised in the Church Times and Inspires both on paper and online back in September. Although there was some interest and one formal application, the Vestry after extensive discussion and careful consideration in consultation with the Bishop decided that the applicant did not have the qualities we were looking for and had been specified in our Parish Profile. This was unfortunate, but the Vestry does not regret the decision and believes it was in the best interests of the congregation as a whole.

We advertised again during November

2011. This time there were one or two expressions of interest, but no applications.

The Vestry met with the Bishop on 23rd January 2012 to discuss the situation. We are all feeling some degree of disappointment and frustration that our efforts so far have come to nothing. The Bishop reassured us that we had done everything right in the quest so far. There was some discussion about other alternatives perhaps through linkage or lay ministry, but the primary focus remains on trying to appoint a full-time priest.

The Bishop is going to discuss the matter with the College of Bishops during their meeting at the beginning of February and hopes (but cannot guarantee) to come back to the Vestry with definite proposals at a meeting scheduled for 20th February 2012. In the meantime please pray for all involved.

Paul Hindle

Many of you will have known my father, Ralph, from his many visits to Lenzie over the years especially around Christmastime. After a long and gradual decline, he died in the Edinburgh Marie Curie Hospice on 19th January 2012.

Mum (Jean) had managed, with community care assistance, to nurse him at home until two days before his death.

He had reached his 84th birthday in October and died just 5 months short of their Diamond Wedding Anniversary.

Although we had been expecting his death for a few months, we had got used to him rallying, so we were not really prepared when the end finally came. I suppose people rarely are.

His funeral, a beautiful Requiem Eucharist, was held in St James the Less, Episcopal Church, Penicuik on the following Wednesday. It was a truly wonderful celebration of his life with six priests taking part. There is a sound recording of the service for those who would like to hear it and copies of the Order of Service, which includes an obituary, are also available electronically or in hardcopy. Please ask me if you would like to hear/see these.

The family has had an association with St James for over 44 years. It was the church where I was confirmed and Pat and I were married. Mum is still one of the regular pianists and organists for St James and its linked charge of St Mungo, West Linton.

Mum, Pat and I are very grateful for all the support we have received from the congregation here at St Cyprian's as well as that from St James and St Mungo's. The number of cards, emails and personal expressions of condolence we have received has been a great comfort. Thank you.

Pastoral Care

One of the important purposes of Christ's church is to provide the love and care we all need.

If you, or anyone you know, would like a visit from a priest or the opportunity for a confidential chat and a prayer, please contact the Revd. Moira Jamieson, who will be happy to help in any way she can.

St. Cyprian's also has a number of people who are authorised to visit and simply be a trusted friend who can be there to listen if you wish. Moira can put you in touch with an appropriate person that may be best qualified to help. Please telephone Moira on 0141-775 1161.
