Rector's Letter

Dear Friends,

Occasionally it seems right to include in this letter a topic on which I have recently preached. It provides an opportunity to expand on the topic in a little more detail, to reinforce what has already been said and to get those who were unable to be at church to think about the subject. As I write, the last Sunday was Fathers Day, and it gave me the opportunity to preach on the Fatherhood of God. It is a topic of vital importance to Christians, so I have decided to make it the subject of this letter.

One of the important tasks that Jesus had was to reveal the nature of God. The things that He shared were unexpected and unpredictable. Most of the things that are understood about the nature God in today's society focus on His being "all powerful, all knowing, and ever present". God is the Creator of the universe. What Jesus revealed was that God was love and loved humanity so much that He came to die in Jesus Christ, to bring us back into relationship with Him. The God-human relationship is best described as that between father and child: in prayer we are to address Him as, "Father, our Father".

We are so used to thinking in these terms that we miss the enormousness of the claim. Just think for a minute about what Jesus is saying: The God that created the universe and any other universes that might be out there; the God who has such power that our most fearsome weapons seem like mere peashooters or popguns; the God who knows everything there is to know; Who knows our own thoughts; the God who is everywhere, from whom we can never hide; that God loves us so much He wants us to call Him Father and for us to be His beloved children. Isn't that incredible and unbelievable? But that is what Jesus told us about God.

Christianity is not like other religions, to misquote the title of a book, 'We dare to call Him Father'. The Fatherhood of God is not something we could infer from philosophical, or religious speculation, it is has been revealed by God through the Person of Jesus Christ. Jesus can rightly claim, "no one comes to the Father but by Me" (John. 14:6): That special relationship was revealed through the life, Passion, Cross, and Resurrection of the Lord.

When we think about the word 'father', we normally focus on the role that men play within the family unit and contrast it with the role of 'mother'. This was not the perspective of

Magazine & DNS Deadline

The next issue of Cyprian Life should be available in Church on Sunday 30th August 2009. The deadline for material is 16th August and the magazine will cover September and October.

Please pass notes, articles, photographs and anything else that may be of interest to other members of the congregation to me by the deadline in order to give time for typesetting and printing. Electronic format is preferred since this is usually quicker and more accurate.

Please let me know about what is important to you. It is great to be able to report family events and things happening in our local community. Thank you.

This issue includes selected items from the last issue of Diocesan News. The full Diocesan News can be downloaded from the diocesan website: www.glasgow.anglican.org

Click on the link on the home page to access the current and earlier editions. If you don't have Internet access, but would like to read DNS, please let me know. I'll be happy to print you a copy.

Diocesan News is published ten times per year. If you have items that would be of interest across the Diocese, please send them to the Diocesan News editor, Susi Cormack Brown, e-mail: dns@episcopalglasgow.co.uk or by post to c/o Glasgow & Galloway Diocesan Centre, 5 St Vincent Place, Glasgow G1 2DH. Please send in prose text, i.e. not leaflets, adverts, posters or PDFs. The deadline for the September issue will be Monday 17th August 2009.

The views expressed in Cyprian Life and the Diocesan News are not necessarily those of the Editor of either publication or the Diocesan Information and Communications Group.

Important Pastoral Group Notice

At our last meeting, it was decided that it would be more helpful if names and addresses were given to the members of the Pastoral Group. This of course contravenes the data protection act unless we know that everyone is happy with their contact information being shared with members of the group.

One way we have been advised to do this is to ask in as many public places within the church as possible if anyone objects to their contact details being passed to members of the Pastoral Group for use only within the group. This we are asking you to do.

Should you not wish to have your details of name, address and telephone number passed on to members of the Pastoral Group, please will you contact Moira Jamieson on 0141 775 1161. Thanks.

Cover Picture

Moira Jamieson is to be ordained priest by Bishop Idris on Sunday, 5th July 2009 in St. Cyprian's at 6pm. The picture was taken after ordination as deacon last September. It shows the detail on her stole and reminds us that Jesus is the Good Shepherd and that those who serve him are to look after His flock.

Please pray for Moira as she takes this next wonderful step in her ministry.

Rector's Letter

Jesus, He continually emphasised relationship not role. He could have equally referred to God as mother e.g. the lament over Jerusalem (Matthew 23:37), but that would have been inappropriate in a paternalistic first century Jewish society. It is not role; but relationship that is all important. God does not play different roles in dealing with His people. Thus God's relationship with us is as intimate as that between father/child or indeed mother/child. We are members of the family of God; it is this intimacy which encourages us to call Him Abba, Father, or Dad!

It is not as the "all powerful, all mighty, all knowing" Creator, but as a Father that God responds to us. Jesus illustrates this point clearly: even men who are evil give good gifts to their children, not gifts which would harm them! How much more will God, who is all goodness, provide only good gifts for His children. We will not receive gifts/answers to prayer which will damage either ourselves or others, or undermine our relationship with Him. God's care for us is infinite love, we can understand a little of that love as we call Him Father.

These are just a few thoughts of God as our Father; there are many more to explore, but not just now as I have come to the end of allotted space. The most important thing to grasp is that the Almighty God longs to be our Father and for us to call Him Abba, Dad.

With my love in Christ,

Geoff

Meet the New Primus

THE Rt Revd David Chillingworth was elected Primus of the Scottish Episcopal Church at a meeting of the Episcopal Synod held on 13th June 2009 during the General Synod in Edinburgh.

Bishop David has been Bishop of St Andrews, Dunkeld and Dunblane since 2005. He succeeds the Most Revd Dr Idris Jones, Bishop of Glasgow & Galloway, who stepped down as Primus on 12 June following his announcement that he will retire from the office of diocesan bishop.

Bishop David is a regular broadcaster on BBC Radio Scotland's 'Thought for the Day'. He writes a blog at www.bishopdavid.net.

Born in 1951, Bishop David grew up in Northern Ireland. He studied at Trinity College, Dublin and Oriel College, Oxford. His training for ministry was at Ripon College, Cuddesdon, in the Church of England.

He was ordained in Belfast in 1976, and much of his working life has been spent at the heart of the Northern Ireland conflict. He also served as Church of Ireland Youth Officer from 1979-1983.

Before moving to Scotland in 2005, he was Rector of Seagoe Parish Church in Portadown and Archdeacon of Dromore.

Celebration of Ministries

Lay Readers, Worship Leaders, Pastoral Assistants, Eucharistic Assistants, friends and family came from across the diocese to St John's Dumfries for the annual celebration of authorised ministries in May.

During the service, Douglas Allison was licensed as a Reader in the diocese, while Linda Whitby and Brian Woodburn were recognised as Reader Emeriti. The authorisations of Pastoral Assistants and Worship Leaders were also issued or renewed.

This was the first time in recent years that the service had been held in Galloway. It was led by Revd Shelley Marsh, with Bishop Idris presiding at the Eucharist. The preacher was Revd Dr Ann Tomlinson, Ministry Development Officer.

My visit to Rwanda Diocese of

The Village Church in the Kibngo Charge

The Rev Ernest has to visit all the churches in the diocese so I was taken along to this remote church on the border land of Rwanda. Oh what a pleasure that was! The pastor kindly let me look around his house. It was very cosy and very welcoming. We had a cup of tea in the sitting room with the lovely touch that some of the Christmas decorations were still up. We saw the visitor's room with its cosy bed and sun hat on the wall for the visitors use. The pastor's bedroom obviously doubled as the Pastor's study (below). The children slept in the same room, but I have to say it was much bigger than the other rooms in the house.

The back yard was a hive of industry, as I found out later, preparing my lunch after the service; which incidentally was delicious. Out the back was a kitchen with an open fire and a charcoal fire.

There were a cow shed with two Rwandan cows (right), which are much smaller than ours and only produce about two litres each day; a bathroom consisting of a privacy hedge and a bowl to be filled with hot water from the kitchen to wash with. There was a separate loo which I am ashamed to say was very much cleaner than my own at home! The water came from the well in the garden and electricity was available tent. I have to say it really uplifted me to see the faces and body language of the choirs singing, often unaccompanied, or accompanied only by a very simple keyboard. I recognised some of the hymns and one of the chorals from Batch—totally unexpected.

The offertory hymn and actions were also unexpected. There were three pots; one for money, one for eggs and one for any other gift. A little boy to light the rooms. What is more, it did not go off the whole time I was there, which is more than could be said for the big modern brick houses where I stayed in Kigali.

Before we had coffee, the boy who works for the Pastor brought a bowl, soap and water to wash our hands. It felt very biblical and in a lot of ways very special.

The service was a simple service with the five choirs singing (above) between readings, sermons and blessings. They cannot have communion each week because the bread and wine is too expensive. They tend to have it once a month. Pastor Joal gave a little greeting and floored me by saying I would be speaking to them later in the service (First I knew about it!).

Rev Ernest spoke about the Cathedral projects and how they could tap into them and the five choir's sang to their (and my) heart's con-broke his egg as he got up and was really upset. One of the Mothers' Union choir members produced a bowl and the boy presented the bowl. The pastor himself collected it from him and carefully put it with the other eggs. The boy went back to the seat beaming—tears to glass eyes for certain.

One young couple had got engaged that week so the pastor had them up front. However the girl was reticent and needed a lot of persuading. The pastor blessed the boy and realise that the other difference was that they had interaction with their pastor and guests during the service despite the fact that there were about 300 in the congregation. I heard God Bless you and your Church as I sat down and felt very humbled and grateful.

It was lovely to come back to St told the congregation that this guy was now taken. He told the boy he should look round now and make sure he had the right girl because once she came up he had to leave the rest alone. It produced a laugh and the girl came up suddenly which produced an even bigger laugh. The pastor then told the congregation that they should have their fill at looking at this young lady because from now on she was taken and was not available for them. He then blessed them with a beautiful service which everyone seemed to know the responses off by heart. It was very moving and made me wonder why we did not make more of the engagement side of the marriage partnership.

I managed to speak and sent your greetings to the congregation mentioning that we had the same liturgy, the same readings and it seemed a lot of the same hymns. I then told them about our church calendar and our groups and about the choirs I sang in and why and how they had been set up. They had a form of ACTS and one of the choirs was set up by an evangelist as was the Kedron Choir. This information was passed on to me during my talk making me

Cyprians after the visit, but I suddenly realised I could not spontaneously give you their greetings and send the obvious love of the world-wide Episcopal Church that they had. It would be lovely to fill our church with some of these people because I know we do have that same love, it has been shown over and over again in my time in Lenzie. I must have become a little African while visiting Rwanda because I want to send you some of God's Blessings I received during my visit and hope you enjoyed reading about HIS love throughout our world-wide church.

Lenzie Churches' Holiday Club

10th to 14th August 2009 — 2 - 4pm

The Lenzie Churches' Holiday Club has been held each August for over 15 years. It is organised by volunteers from the three Lenzie Churches and meets during the last full week before the children go back to school after the summer break.

The club is based at Lenzie Union Parish Church New Hall and is open to all children who have just completed any of the school years from Primary 1 to Primary 7.

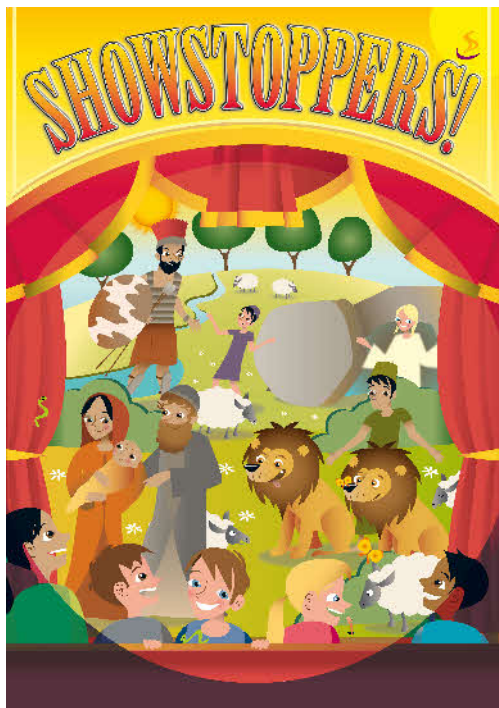

The aim of the club is to provide a fast-moving, fun and action-packed holiday club programme in safe and welcoming surroundings, with leaders who care about what happens to young people.

The activities this year will follow the theme of Scripture Union's latest holiday club resource, Showstoppers, published earlier this year. With a theatrical theme, the programme asks us to get ready to lift the curtain on the greatest show on earth! Everyone from the experienced actor to the stage-shy musician will enjoy Showstoppers! It uses performing arts to explore the stories of creation, David and Goliath, Daniel in the lion's den, Jesus' birth, and his crucifixion and resurrection.

The Holiday Club only works because lots of people are prepared to help. With over 150 under sixteens attending each day, we need at least 25 over eighteens to attend each day. That means we need around 40 volunteers to cover for those who can't make it every day.

If you feel you could help in any way, we would love to hear from you. Since we are only a few weeks away from the beginning of the week, please give me (or Aileen) a ring as soon as possible.

There will be a full briefing for volunteers on Thursday, 7th August at 7.30pm in Lenzie

Union New Hall.

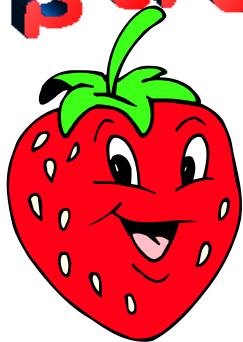

The hall will be decorated for the club from 2pm on Sunday, 9th August. There'll be lots of paint about so don't come in your Sunday best!

The Holiday Club is an experience not to be missed. Do come and join us. You will find it so worthwhile.

Paul Hindle, ☎ 776 3237
or Aileen Mundy, ☎ 578 9449

NB. All club leaders over 18 years of age are required to be vetted by the Scottish Criminal Records Office. This is undertaken through the Church of Scotland at no cost to the volunteer (except filling out the form and providing the required proof of identity).

Strawberry Fayre

Last year Kathryn wrote that God walked with us in large measure on the day of the Strawberry Fayre. This year, it seemed the Lord had sustained and uplifted us to ensure a successful event despite hiccoughs over publicity and a number of helpers being away.

The hall was very busy from the beginning and at one stage was so full that we provided some tables outside so people could again a great showcase for St Cyprian's. Many thanks to all who helped to make the Fayre such a success. The total sum raised for church funds was over £500.

Lenzie Gala and Open Air Service

Gala Day in Lenzie was a very mixed day. The Gala Queen arrived in pouring rain, but later it brightened up though there were still some very heavy showers.

This was good for the Churches tent since it provided one of the few places to shelter from the rain as well as a nice cup of tea and something to go with it. In our annex, the face painters were kept very busy. We also had a visit from our local MP, Jo Swinson (above)

The primary theme of the displays was the bicentenary of the Scottish Bible Society and its work in providing a bus to bring health and spiritual care to the poor of Brazil.

This theme continued into the Open Air Service, where on a beautiful sunny evening Alan Campbell (below left) of the Scottish Bible Society was the key speaker.

Marriage and Cohabitation: The Same or Different?

Described as an exploration of the issues surrounding relationships in the 21st century, this one-day Mothers' Union event takes place on Saturday 12th September 2009, in St John's Dumfries, 10am - 2.30pm.

Leading the day will be MU chaplain Revd Scott Robertson.

Four sessions will cover the history of marriage and cohabitation; the Biblical context; present-day perceptions; and the law with relation to marriage and cohabitation. Following an introduction on each subject there will be a group discussion.

The event is for all church members, family and friends. Lunch will be free. Please contact Carolynne Sorrell (01387 255798, cmsorrell@aol.com) if you are interested so that organisers have numbers for catering. Also please let her know if you would like a crèche.

The MU will hold a similar event in St Silas, Glasgow, on 5 December.

Freshers' Week at Glasgow University

The Mothers' Union runs a stall during Fresher's Week at Glasgow University—we give out free baking, have a stall with MU literature and sell our recipe book for 40p.

We would like volunteers to help run the stall. You don't need to be particularly fit There's plenty of sedentary work to do—even sit and keep the money safe!!!

The stall is only running for two days this year on Tuesday 15th and Wednesday 16th September. Please speak to Enid if you can help. For more information about the recipe book please take a look at the MU website www.muigg.org.uk

MU Outing to St Andrews

We are very grateful to Audrey Groom for organising a wonderful day out to St Andrews taking in coffee at Kinross, lunch at St Andrews Botanic Gardens, and dinner next to the Forth Bridges. There'll be more pictures and a longer report on the MU website shortly.

Praise in the Park ... or Hallelujah in the Hall!

The annual ecumenical service of “Praise in the Park” organised by our local ACTS group was again a great success although heavy rain and thunder meant it was quickly relocated to St Ninian’s Parochial Hall.

It took place on Sunday 15th June and around 160 people from all the local churches attended. St Cyprian’s was well represented. Everyone enjoyed singing lots of their favourite hymns accompanied by Kelvin Brass.

The evening concluded with a time of fellowship over tea and biscuits. It was a most enjoyable occasion despite the inclement weather.

Vestry Notes

There have been three Vestry meetings since the last set of notes appeared in Cyprian Life. The notes of the meeting that took place on 19th March 2009 are printed below. Due to shortage of space in this issue, the notes of the meetings that took place on 22nd April and 20th May have been held over to the next issue.

Meeting held on

Thursday 19th March 2009:

1. The Diocesan Protection Report was awaiting confirmation and a meeting was planned for April to clarify and ratify Kathryn Potts' position as Child Protection Officer. No other matters in this area could be dealt with until this had been completed.
2. The Financial Statement for the first six months of the year revealed a surplus of income over expenditure for this period of £105.41
3. A further "Service of Healing" is planned for Whitsunday (31st May 2009).
4. The report that had been prepared by Barbara Parfitt of the meeting between the Lay Representative and the Bishop on 9th February 2009 had been circulated but not all members had copies available for reference so that informed discussion was not possible at the meeting.
5. The Rector reported on the outcome of another, more recent meeting that he and Moira Jamieson had had with the Bishop. The information he provided suggested that the Bishop was not supportive of Mary Boyd's re-integration into a leadership role in the music at St. Cyprians and that he, the Rector, was bound by this view.
6. It was agreed, after lengthy discussion, that Barbara Parfitt should present her report for discussion at a special meeting of the Vestry called for that purpose and that a meeting should be arranged with Mary to offer pastoral support and to extend the care and love of the Vestry to another member of the church. The Rector wished the outcome to be reported back to the Vestry in writing.
7. The Finance group had met on 23rd February and reported back to the Vestry. Further attempts to secure additional finance for the Hall Extension Project were under consideration, but additional funding, in the region of £20,000 - £25,000, was required before we could consider going ahead with the project. It also pointed out that there was insufficient projected income within the immediate future to support a full-time incumbent.
8. At a meeting of the Marketing Group on 15th March 2009, Kathryn Potts was elected chair of the group, but the newly constituted group had not yet met.
9. The income from donations for the use of the Hall for the first 6 months of the financial year amounted to £1,171.00
