Curate's Corner

Dear Friends,

I don't know if you have read about the Fife born artist David Mach who plans to make a matchstick effigy of the head of the Devil and also of the head of Christ and set them alight (in the name of 'Art') at this year's Edinburgh Festival.

An article in the Scotsman says, "He, (David Mach) has been planning the exhibition for nearly three years to celebrate the 400th anniversary of the publication of the King James Bible in 1611. It is costing Edinburgh City Council around £115,000 to stage, (the whole religious exhibition) and will run from 30 July to 16 October."

It makes you think about all the fuss and death threats placed on Salman Rushdie when he wrote and published his book The Satanic Verses. The Muslim faith certainly stood up for their religion when they took offence at his writings.

However, we of the Christian faith don't often take quite such drastic action when we are offended by words or actions against our religion. At the foot of this article on the Scotsman website there were a number of comments about David Mach's so called contribution to the Edinburgh Festival's Religious Arts event. The final comment said that we shouldn't worry too much, after all this was only a pile of matches that was being set on fire and that Jesus is alive and living in each and every one of us. This is a very true comment and we should never forget that Jesus is with us each and every day.

However, there is the matter of respect for each other and for people's feelings, and that is something which is sadly missing in a lot of areas of our society. It makes me think that if we just let things like this go and people are allowed to do just as they please, we may well end up with anarchy. Already some people don't seem to care what others think or feel or believe and it's quite sad. It's the 'I'm alright Jack' and 'couldn't care less' attitudes that I think undermine society.

It is interesting though that I could go on for ages debating on this and still not see any good coming from allowing this event to go ahead. Apart from the moral travesty of people on the bread line and the homeless in Scottish towns and cities, and Edinburgh Council being happy to hand out money for what is loosely termed 'the arts,'—I can't help

Magazine & DNS Deadline

The next issue of Cyprian Life should be available in Church on Sunday 3rd July 2011. The deadline for material is 19th June and the magazine will cover July and August.

Please pass notes, articles, photographs and anything else that may be of interest to other members of the congregation to me by the deadline in order to give time for typesetting and printing. Electronic format is preferred since this is usually quicker and more accurate.

Please let me know about what is important to you. It is great to be able to report family events and things happening in our local community. Thank you.

This issue includes selected items from the last issue of Diocesan News. The full Diocesan News can be downloaded from the diocesan website: www.glasgow.anglican.org

Click on the link on the home page to access the current and earlier editions. If you don't have Internet access, but would like to read DNS, please let me know. I'll be happy to print you a copy.

Diocesan News is published ten times per year. If you have items that would be of interest across the Diocese, please send them to the Diocesan News editor, Susi Cormack Brown, e-mail: dns@episcopalglasgow.co.uk or by post to c/o Glasgow & Galloway Diocesan Centre, 5 St Vincent Place, Glasgow G1 2DH. Please send in prose text, i.e. not leaflets, adverts, posters or PDFs. The deadline for the July and August issue will be Monday 13th June 2011.

but feel sad for the good that this money could have done for its people. £115,000 could go a long way to alleviating suffering and helping many, many people.

Should we stand up for our Christian beliefs and react to events like this? Or should we do as Jesus did on many occasions, and 'turn the other cheek'?

Pastoral Care

One of the important purposes of Christ's church is to provide the love and care we all need.

If you, or anyone you know, would like a visit from a priest or the opportunity for a confidential chat and a prayer, please contact the Curate, Revd. Moira Jamieson, who will be happy to help in any way she can.

St. Cyprian's also has a number of people who are authorised to visit and simply be a trusted friend who can be there to listen if you wish. Moira can put you in touch with an appropriate person that may be best qualified to help. Please telephone Moira on 0141-775 1161.

Pentecost Launch for Our Growth Strategy

After months of planning, the Diocesan Growth Strategy will be launched this Pentecost. Bishop Gregor will be visiting each Region in June as we celebrate in worship and prayer our Pentecost launch of the Diocesan Growth Strategy.

The obvious image I have in my mind is a piece of ground, the soil being prepared ready for the sowing.

How do you picture that ground? Rather like that described in the parable of Jesus, it may not be perfect, but it is the best we have and, just as importantly, the people we have in our local church communities are not perfect either, but we can grow in life and faith, combining our efforts with good grace: seeking the blessing of God in good faith too.

As we begin this season of 'Growing in God's Grace' in the diocese, my prayer is that we commit ourselves to do two things which will initiate growth.

Firstly, we must not be afraid to scatter the seed on that ground. Commit yourself to the task of 'making things grow in the local church and local community', but remember to prepare the ground as best you can.

Cover Photo

The event was well attended and we were able to publicise our events and put St Cyprian's on the map.

Secondly, affirm and encourage one another. Don't be quick to criticise but watch, wait, tend and nurture the seed and the ground. By God's grace, and in due season, growth will be celebrated.

PRAYER

*Spirit of our Loving God, in your mercy and compassion
inspire, encourage and empower us to live and work together as a diocese, to allow your mission for us to take flesh
through Jesus Christ,
our Living and Eternal Lord. Amen*

Where will growth be found?

The diocese is committing itself to growing the fruits of six themes:

- Prayer and spirituality
- Learning and discipleship
- Missional leadership
- Numerical growth, welcome and integration
- Children and young people
- Imaginative outreach into local communities.

Each charge in the diocese is asked to become involved in Mission Action Planning from Autumn 2011, creating the ground for growth around one or two of these themes.

News from Sweden

Street Party to Welcome New Mosque

Gothenburg Diocese is helping to plan a street party to welcome a mosque that is being built in the city.

The event, whose theme is 'A Gothenburg for everybody', is in response to a demonstration against the mosque planned for the following day by extremist groups branding Muslims as a 'threat'.

A Diocesan conference for priests and deacons drew around 650 participants to Gothenburg last month.

The theme was baptismal life, focusing on confirmation education.

There were lectures from Anglican Ann Morisy on 'The witness of the Baptised' and Bishop Markus Dröge from the Evangelical Lutheran partner church of Berlin on 'Mission in a post-Christian society'. Norwegian Lutheran Harald Hegstad spoke about 'The congregation—the communion of baptised from the church'. The Glasgow & Galloway link was represented by Revd Ian Barcroft and Revd Sandy Montgomerie.

A church centre for pilgrimage has just been inaugurated in one of the parish halls in Gothenburg. The centre is going to be a place for worship, pilgrimage planning, information sharing, and reflection on pilgrimage.

Eight candidates will be ordained as priests by Bishop Carl Axel on 12 June in the Cathedral of Gothenburg.

On 16 June, the retirement service of Bishop Carl Axel will take place in the Cathedral of Gothenburg in the presence of Bishop Gregor Duncan, among others.

Future Ministry at St Cyprian's

Shortly after the last magazine was printed, the Vestry Secretary received a letter from the Bishop laying out a proposal for consideration by the Vestry. The proposal is appoint a full-time priest for a three-year period with financial assistance from the Diocese and the Province.

The Bishop met with the Vestry on 3rd May 2011 to discuss the proposal in more detail. There are quite a few issues to be sorted out, but we are now very hopeful of being able to appoint a full-time priest later on this year or early next year. The Bishop has agreed to help us find a suitable person.

This is really good news as it gives us the best chance of attracting new people and growing our church family. The congregation will be taking on the largest share of the costs of the new priest so this is a substantial financial commitment. Our fundraising efforts will need to continue apace, but the Vestry and the Bishop's Staff Group are confident that we can manage.

I'm very pleased that the Vestry decided to seek support for a full-time appointment and that the Bishop and his staff group have responded so positively. As I indicated earlier, it is not yet a "done deal", but everyone involved believes our case is a strong one and that we can now start to take some tentative steps towards finding an experienced priest to lead us.

Again I ask your prayers for all involved, the Bishop, the Vestry and especially Moira as the interregnum is likely to last somewhat longer than we all had hoped.

The Coffee Morning held in St Cyprian's Church Hall on Wednesday, 18th May 2011 raised over £380 for Christian Aid.

Thank you to everyone who helped in any way to make this a success.

With Eileen out of circulation following an operation and many of the congregation being ill or otherwise unavailable, we were not able to help with the house to house collection this year, but we hope to be back next year.

Leasing of Conference Centre Put on Hold

PLANS to find a tenant for Scottish Churches House have been put on hold.

At a meeting last month, members of Action of Churches Together in Scotland (ACTS), supported a resolution that 'the trustees defer acceptance of any bid for the future occupation or use of Scottish Churches House until there has been opportunity for further consultation with the member churches of ACTS regarding the future of Scottish Churches House'.

Another special Members Meeting has now been called for 15 June.

However, the decision made by the trustees at the start of this year to cease the current business operation of SCH on 15 July still stands.

The ecumenical conference centre in Dunblane has been used for many years for residential conferences, day meetings, weddings and celebrations.

Car Boot Sale

The event raised more than last time at almost £337 with Daphne and the team on the St Cyprian's stall raising around one third of the total, so obviously someone was buying! The kitchen team also made a major contribution.

It is clear we are going to need to keep a strong focus on publicity if we are going to keep the interest of the stall holders

The last sale took place on 14th May 2011 and was well attended by stall holders despite the weather forecast not being too good. In the end the weather was dry and mostly sunny, but unfortunately the attendance was not as good as we had hoped for given the level of publicity we thought we had achieved.

and keep them coming back, so please take a poster for the next one a display it where lots of people will see it. The next sale is on 8th July and then on second Saturday of September and November.

Come along and see some local colour

Look out for leaflets in church with details of gardens and opening times.

Free entry—donations for charity invited.

Lenzie Branch

The April meeting was billed as a supper night, but before settling down to a lovely supper, we had to do some creative work as you can see in the pictures. This is when the Easter garden and tree were made.

We all had a lovely time and thanks go to those who worked so hard to make supper for us.

The May meeting saw John Fisher from Lenzie Union and our own Aileen Mundy talk about the Lenzie Holiday Club, with audio visual assistance from Paul Hindle.

They all fell into their usual roles in the club. We saw some of the pictures and video from the club and heard about the joys of working with the children through a very busy week in August. They even managed to get us to join in the songs and the actions that the children do! Thank you to John, Aileen and Paul for an entertaining evening.
