From Our Priest-in-Charge

Dear Ones,

My grandfather was a farmer. Some of my fondest childhood memories come from autumn time at my grandparents house.

In late August and all throughout September, we would gather in the fields after grandpa had bailed the hay and we'd walk behind his pickup truck collecting the heavy rectangular bundles and heaving them up to whomever got the coveted job of stacking the bales in the back of the truck. Then, when the truck was stacked high – some might even say “too high” – we got to climb up onto the pile where we would sit as the truck rambled home from the fields to store the hay to feed the cows over the winter.

One of the times that I feel most at home in Scotland is when I start seeing the huge, round haybales appearing in the fields. The low, golden sun shining over the fields in the last stretch before the darkness of winter always raises a sense of awe in my heart.

As we prepare to celebrate Harvest, I hope we can take stock not only of the seasonal bounty, but our communal bounty as well. The generosity, hospitality, and joy that we share with one another here at St. Cyprian's is a harvest of the abundance of God's grace. At Harvest we are called upon to celebrate all that we have grown and gathered – and then to

Magazine & DNS Deadline

The next issue of Cyprian Life should be available on Sunday, 30th November 2025. The deadline for material is Sunday, 23rd November 2025, though it would be good to get things earlier, if possible. The magazine will be for December 2025 to February 2026.

Please email notes, articles, photographs and anything else that may be of interest to other members of the congregation to me by the deadline in order to give time for typesetting and printing. Electronic format is strongly preferred.

Please let me know about what is important to you, especially how world events have affected you.

I sometimes incorporate items from the Glasgow & Galloway Diocesan News that I hope might interest members of the congregation. You can subscribe to receive the monthly news email from the diocese by going to glasgow.anglican.org, the diocesan home page, and entering your email address in the box at the bottom of the page. The email newsletter takes the form of brief paragraphs with links to fuller articles on the diocesan website and, where appropriate, other sites. The diocese is also on Facebook—search ‘Diocese of Glasgow & Galloway’.

We are encouraged to contribute by sending any items for the email newsletter to news@glasgow.anglican.org. There’s no stated deadline, but they need to be in a few days before the email comes out (usually on the second last Friday of the month).

The views expressed in Cyprian Life are not necessarily those of the Editor or of the Scottish Episcopal Church.

share it with others. So let’s start this season with our celebrations before considering, in the weeks ahead, how we can share this abundance with which God has blessed us.

With Love,

Cover Picture

Wild roses seem to have been particularly prolific in producing hips this year. The cover photo shows one of many bushes that has produced an abundant harvest this year.

We look forward to celebrating and giving thanks to God for that abundance during our Harvest Festival on 5th October. We’ll also show our gratitude by donating food to the local Food Bank to share our fortune with those who are struggling.

If you have a picture you think would be of interest, please send it to the editor at: magazine@stcyprianslenzie.com.

Pastoral Care

One of the important purposes of Christ's church is to provide the love and care we all need.

Our new Priest-in-Charge, Audrey, is now working on meeting the need for pastoral care. She is planning to visit everyone in the congregation, but if you have a more immediate need, please phone her on 07424 723794 or email her at rector@stcyprianslenzie.com.

Other members of St. Cyprian's are also available to talk to if you wish. Rev. Audrey can put you in touch with an appropriate person that may be best qualified to help.

In Memory of Audrey Groom

15th April 1937 -
1st September 2025

Many of you will, I'm sure, remember Audrey. The photo here was taken when she was, as she often did, helping at an event in the Church Hall. The following appreciation was provided by the family.

Audrey Rita Groom was aged 88 when she passed away peacefully on September 1st, 2025, at Wishaw General Hospital.

Audrey was born in London in 1937. She spent her early years in the London area where she married Bernard Arthur Groom, with whom she shared a rich and loving life (Bernard died in April 2007 and there was a short appreciation in the May/June 2007 issue of CyprianLife). Audrey was a loving wife, devoted mother of three sons: Andrew, Stuart, and the late Richard, and a talented homemaker. This talent probably faced the biggest challenge when the family moved to Glasgow in 1974. Audrey was their rock and helped them all through a difficult adjustment to a very different life in Scotland.

We knew her here at St. Cyprian's for many years until, following Bernard's death, she demonstrated a strength of character and desire to continue to enjoy life by moving to Auchlochan Garden Village where she made many new close and dear friends.

She is survived by Andrew and Stuart, three grandchildren, Sarah Groom, Anna Smith, Lucy Groom and five great grandchildren, Rory, Finlay, Blair, Jude and Ronnie who will forever cherish her quiet strength, creativity, and warmth.

Audrey and Bernard recognized and encouraged their three sons' different personalities and continued to support them all throughout their lives. They were both extremely proud of their sons and delighted to welcome two daughters-in-law to the family, Veronica and Sally.

In her own words, Audrey had an "exciting, eventful and interesting life". Audrey and Bernard enjoyed travelling, visiting many countries in Europe and making numerous trips to the USA and Canada.

Known for her skilful hands and artistic spirit, Audrey found great joy in gardening, dressmaking, and sewing. Her garden was often filled with blooming flowers and wonderful plants. Audrey skilfully made many dresses for herself and others, each made with love and care.

Those close to her will remember her gentle nature, her resilience, and the way she brought comfort and beauty into the lives of others. She will be deeply missed by family, friends, and all who had the privilege to know her. Her funeral was held on Monday 22nd September 2025 at Daldowie Crematorium followed by a reception at The Douglas Suite in Auchlochan Garden Village, Lesmahagow,

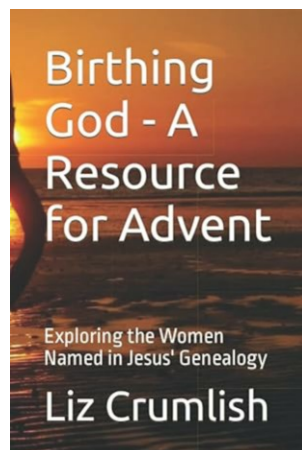

The family kindly suggests donations to Operation Smile UK, a local hospice, or a charity in her memory.

Planning Ahead – Advent Groups

Advent Book Study

We will use the book Birthing God by Rev. Liz Crumlish to explore the women in Jesus' Genealogy. "A book to accompany you through the season of Advent - for use by individuals and by groups. Five women are named in the genealogy of Jesus. This book explores the stories of these women and their subversive contributions to their generations. It also reflects on the plight of women today who continue to birth God in the world through subversive acts of love."

Please let Rev Audrey know if you are interested in participating in the study so she can gauge numbers and order books. The day/time for group gathering will be determined in November in consultation with those who have expressed interest.

Coping at Christmas

This group is intended for those who are struggling with loss this season. We will gather at St. Cyprian's on Wednesday afternoons in Advent to breathe deeply, acknowledge our feelings, and make space for Christ in this season of our lives. Please register your interest with Rev. Audrey so she can communicate directly about plans for this gathering.

SUGGESTED DONATION £2.00

Join Us, Join In is the theme for Mothers Union as we approach the start of 2026 during which we will celebrate the 150 years since Mary Sumner began our wonderful organisation. With 4 million members across 84 countries around the globe, our Branch here at St Cyprian's may be a small part of that, but we are keen to invite everyone to join with us and join in all that we do at local level.

We started our session in September by holding a joint service with our near neighbours in Cumbernauld and Bishopbriggs and led by our new Priest-in-Charge, Audrey. Taizé chants, readings from the MU Liverpool conference and celebrating the feast of Gregory the Great all formed part of our service and was a great way to start our year. Following a cuppa, a short introduction to the 150th year of celebrations was made and this will form the main topic for discussion at our next meeting on Wednesday 1st October at 7.30pm.

This meeting will focus on how we would like to celebrate at local, Diocesan and Provincial level with our sister Branches. We have been challenged to make 2026 a real celebration of MU so look out for ways you can join in.

Athonite Fresco of Saint Gregory

Our meeting on Wednesday 5th November at 1pm has been advertised in our programme as 'An afternoon with Audrey' details of which are yet to be finalised so watch out in the weekly Link for more information nearer the time.

As always, I invite you to any or all of our meetings – we are a friendly bunch and would love to have you with us.

New Miscellany

New Role for Rev. Audrey

No sooner was Rev. Audrey licensed as Priest-in-Charge here at Lenzie than the Bishop asked her to serve as Interim Priest-in-Charge at St. James the Less, Bishopbriggs.

She expects to offer them a similar pattern of cover as Paul Watson had given to St. Cyprian's, i.e. a Sunday every other month, a monthly Thursday Eucharist, and home communions and other pastoral care as the need arises. She has already undertaken her first funeral in this role.

She is also planning to offer Advent and Lent programmes to both churches (see page 7 for more about the Advent programme).

She also wants to consider if there may be other ways we can support both charges by working together during the Bishopbriggs vacancy. This is an exciting opportunity for both churches.

Blue Christmas/ Longest Night Service

For those who were bereaved at Christmastime, the joyous celebrations around them can be very difficult to cope with.

As you can read on page 7, we are considering holding events during Advent to recognise the difficulty some of our members face.

Child-friendly Church

The Vestry is supporting Rev. Audrey's wishes to explore how children could be better catered for in the church. You may well spot various changes as she experiments with what might work.

There won't be any permanent changes until we do find out what is helpful to our young people.

Server's Training

Rev. Audrey would like to offer this to all existing servers and anyone else who might like to be involved.

We would like to encourage children to be involved, so we may need to require adult servers to join the PVG scheme, especially if they are involved in training the children, in order to satisfy our legal obligations.

Communications Survey

Whenever somebody new arrives, it presents the opportunity to look at how we currently do things and whether they are 'fit for purpose' as the jargon goes.

To this end Rev. Audrey is planning to send a brief communications survey to the congregation to canvas opinion on what is the best plan for communications in future.

You may have a view on the relevance of this magazine and how frequently it should be produced. Is the current content of interest to you and what would you change? We hope to have made a decision on that in time for the next issue.

We currently send out an email each week to provide the link to the online service, prayer intentions and the latest information about upcoming events. It's encouraging that it is opened by the majority of recipients and there is a very low unsubscribe rate. That doesn't mean it's perfect. How could it be improved or would you miss it if it wasn't produced? Should we concentrate on it and reduce the magazine?

What other communication methods would you favour. Would a congregational Facebook group or a WhatsApp group be of interest? Do you read the local newspaper? Is it worth putting some effort into it?

It's all up for grabs!

Music @ St Cyprian's

The 2025-26 season got off to a wonderful start on Saturday 27th September with Eilidh Gillespie (flute) and Sharron Griffiths (harp) bringing us a beautiful selection of music.

One of the most intriguing was Narthex by Bernard Andr s, which saw Sharron having to reassure her students watching that she was not damaging the harp as she hit it with her hands and tuning tool. The composer had intended

SCOTLAND AND BEYOND

Alastair Savage fiddle

Gregor Blamey piano/accordion

From the 18th-century Golden Age of Robert Burns and Niel Gow, to 19th-century virtuoso James Scots Skinner, alongside classic melodies from Ireland and America, Alastair completes his diverse festival programme with an eclectic range of sound, alongside piano/accordion supremo Gregor Blamey. Steeped in traditional and classical disciplines and with a critically acclaimed back catalogue of album recordings, radio broadcasts and live performances, this promises to be a unique insight into the fiddle tradition.
